Dear Atty. Swift,

In a discussion between you, Sr. Mariani Dimaranan and Sr. Crescencia Lucero during your visit to the Philippines in 1993, it was agreed that TFDP assist the victims of Marcos atrocities in filing their cases with the Hawaii court. TFDP assisted about 6,000 victims in the making of affidavits, in the documentation of their cases and accessing of supporting documents regarding the human rights violations.

As per our records, there is an account receivable from Atty. Robert Swift in the amount of Two hundred seventy eight thousand three hundred twenty seven & fifty centavos only (Php 278, 327.50). These were expenses incurred by TFDP in assisting the victims of human rights violations in filing their cases in the Hawaii court as part of the human rights litigation against Ferdinand E. Marcos. If need be, a certification by an external auditor maybe sent to you regarding this account.

Should you need further clarification regarding this matter, please inform us.

Very respectfully,

Aurora A. Parong
Aurora A. Parong, M.D.

Dear Attys. Swift and Domingo,

Our warmest greetings!

First we would like to apologize since it is only now that we were able to submit the expenses which we have incurred during the depositions of the victims conducted October and November of last year. Due to the never ending campaigns for the release of the political prisoners, the Flor Contemplacion case, it is only now that we were able to give attention to the financial report with regard to the depositions of the victims.

We hope that this is not so late and can still be given attention.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Isabelita A. Sombillo
ISABELITA "IRA" SOMBILLO
Projects/Welfare Coordinator

P.S. Can you give us the latest update with regard to the case?
Again, thank you.

Class Lead Counsel
Marcos Human Rights Litigation

Thru: Atty. Rod Domingo

Makati City, Philippines

Dear Atty. Swift,

Warm greetings from the Board of Directors and in behalf of all our claimant-members!

We would like to convey our appreciation for your continuing and successful handling of the class suit. We appreciate the efforts, especially because we know how difficult it is, to get the Marcoses to settle the case. Sans the objectionable and irrelevant midnight insertions made by the Marcoses, the settlement agreement has our full support.

The hearing on April 29, 1999 on the final approval of the settlement agreement will include the determination of the expenses incurred in the class suit. In consultation with Atty. Rod Domingo, we are therefore submitting to you our list of expenses in support of the class counsel during the five years that Claimants 1081 has been in existence, including its organizational phase from April 1994.

Attached herewith is the list of our expenses, amounting to $20,022.20, as culled from our financial records.

We hope that you can include these in your motion to the court for the determination of expenses in the class suit.

Regards.

Sincerely yours,

Ramon Casiple

Acting Secretary-General
